

User Journey -

User Action

User logs into app for first time

User Action

User wants to post an ad

User Action

User describes the listing in detail

User Action

User wants to see their listing added to a list of their

System Response

User opens the app and enters login details/ registers an account

System Response

User uses the nav bar and clicks on Post an Ad button to direct user to the dashboard

System Response

User enters details of their listing on an online form

System Response

Listing is added and persisted on a database and displayed in the browser.

User Action

User wants to see how many views their post has had

User Action

User has made a typing error and needs to amend data.
User clicks on edit

User Action

User has been contacted by buyer and the item has been sold. The user deletes the post

User Action

User looks up customer information in the customer search bar

System Response

The dashboard displays the number of views per post.

System Response

Online form is populated with previous data and can be edited and persisted on db.

System Response

User navigates to dashboard and clicks on the delete button which removes the listing from the form and db.

System Response

Search bar accesses the data from the db and displays the results of the search if it exists on the db.

User Journey -